

Dorset County Hospital Library Service

library.office@dchft.nhs.uk

Pharmacology

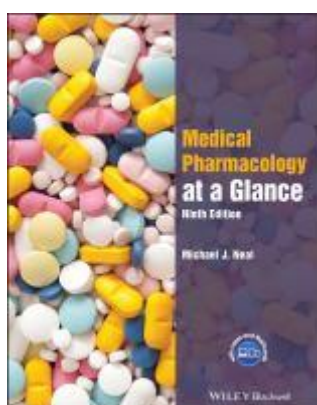

Resource Guide

Register to become a library member to borrow books and access the library 24/7.

Complete the online registration form on the library's website. You can request books and articles from there also.

Books

Medical pharmacology at a glance

The textbook of non-medical prescribing

Rang and Dale's Pharmacology

This is just a small selection of books you might be interested in.

To see more, visit the library catalogue

Electronic journals and ebooks

For journals and electronic books please visit Discovery Search or the NICE A-Z Journal list. You have access to ClinicalKey which is an online resource consisting of hundreds of electronic journals and books.

ClinicalKey®

You will need an OpenAthens account to be able to access full text versions of these resources.

Register for an OpenAthens username and password.

Services and Training

The library offers a comprehensive list of services and training opportunities.

Study Skills	Reflective Reading and Writing for CPD Workshops	Referencing support
Request a book or article		Literature searches
Finding the evidence – getting the most out of OpenAthens	Literature search training	Critical appraisal and Journal Club support
For more information or to book a place on any of the above please contact library.office@dchft.nhs.uk		