

September 2023

Dorset County Hospital
NHS Foundation Trust

Library Newsletter

Hub Crawl—coming to a ward near you!

The Library is on tour! On the morning of Thursday 7th September the library team will be visiting various wards and departments. We will be showcasing our online hub—a one stop search of all the library's resources. We'll be distributing some goodies too! Look out for our blue trolley!

Training and Events Programme 2023-24

The Library has an extensive programme of events and training for the academic year, including study skills workshops, sessions on reflective reading and writing and Knowledge Cafes! Take a look at the list of dates we have to offer on our website Training Menu | Dorset County Hospital Library \(dchlibrary.com\) We also offer bespoke training on an ad-hoc or group basis, via MS Teams or face to face in our training room.

2nd October—Library Open Afternoon 2-5pm

Come and meet the Library team and view our resources over afternoon tea! Pop in when you can to chat with Alfred, Jack, Joe and Morag about the library service and what we can do for you. No need to book, just come on down!

Dorchester Literary Festival—14th-21st October

Tickets for this year's Dorchester Literary Festival are now on sale and selling fast. Organisers have put together a richly varied line up of speakers including Victoria Hislop, Ray Mears, Alan Titchmarsh, Tim Spector, Julia Bradbury, Tim Marshall, Polly Toynbee, Louise Minchen, Lemn Sissay, Daniel Finklestein, and many more. You will find details and timings of all events and be able to purchase tickets at www.dorchesterliteraryfestival.com

For more information about any item please email library.office@dchft.nhs.uk